

TIMM-E COMPANY UNVEILS NEW ANIMATED SHORT: “THE GRASS IS STONE – AN ANIMATED SHORT ON LOVE”

*Accompanied by an Original Motion Picture Soundtrack
Now Available Across All Streaming Platforms*

NEW YORK, NY — The TIMM-E Company, Inc. announced the official release of “The Grass is Stone – An Animated Short on Love,” an evocative new animated project directed by award winning educator, fabric artist and filmmaker Timothy Bellavia in collaboration with Chloe Yung.

Riding the delicate line of sadness and hilarity, “The Grass is Stone” follows the journey of Timmy as he navigates the complex, unpredictable emotional terrain of a happy marriage gone wrong. Under the visionary direction of Timothy Bellavia (b. 1971), the short features a seamless integration of poignant human emotion and cutting-edge digital precision. Helmed alongside Chloe Yung (b. 2003), the art production bridges a dynamic generational gap in digital storytelling, merging classic narrative vulnerability with contemporary visual aesthetics.

Enhancing the narrative’s emotional depth is an original musical score and soundtrack, now available worldwide across all major audio streaming platforms (including Spotify, Apple Music, and Amazon Music).

The rich soundscape features a score composed by Dan Gianobnee together with Bellavia, complemented by standout performances from Coby Koehl and Mystery Girl. Bringing the animated characters to life with nuance and charm are voiceover performances by Jose Pita and Chloe Yung.
